LONDONDERRY — Friends and family of Gregory Smart established a memorial fund this week, while the family of Smart's wife, Pamela, convicted last week of planning Smart's murder, are asking for help paying her legal costs to appeal the conviction.

Smart, 24, was fatally shot in the head May 1 by his wife's lover, then-16-year-old William Flynn of Seabrook.

Pamela Smart was convicted Friday of masterminding the crime, which happened just days before the couple's first wedding anniversary.

Her lawyers say she will appeal the verdict.

Gregory Smart's father, William said yesterday he is "very happy," about the Gregory Smart Memorial Fund, earmarked in part for his son's alma mater, Londonderry High School.

"I just think it's a great thing," Smart said. "It's something good for a young man who was good."

Smart said the money will be donated for scholarships in his son's name.

Gregory Smart's friend, Richard Lafond, said donations may be made to the Gregory Smart Memorial Fund, c/o Bank-

East, 50 Nashua Road, suite 100, Londonderry, 03053.

A second fund connected to the Smart case was started this week by the parents of Pamela Smart.

According to a message on John and Linda Wojas' answering machine, they have started an appeal fund for their daughter, "Because we also feel Pam did not get the fair trial she was entitled to."

According to the message, "Many of you have expressed an interest in helping out in this respect."

The address for the fund is 5 Johnson Road, Windham, 03087 — the Wojas' address.
